Ball Camp At Our Savior

For Beginners and Experienced

ad Centereach, NY

ND SKILL SPECIFIC CAMPS

n Air-Conditioned Gym

Grades 4 through 12)

Method Of Instruction: Each skill will be taught and demonstrated by Pastor Stelzer and then players will be supervised by the Our Savior coaching staff and high school players as they practice the skill taught. Players will be placed at a station with players of comparable ability. For competitive games and contests, players will also be grouped accordingly. (The goal: Less skilled players will not be frustrated or left out, and more skilled players will be challenged at their level).

Tuition: $105 basic; $130 advanced; $155 for Offensive Moves and Scoring. You may sign up for multiple sessions on a space available basis, but please note the different curriculum and qualifications for each camp.

DISCOUNT: Take $10 off the tuition price for each session if registration and full payment is received by June 15th.

Required!! All players are to report each day with proper attire: non-marking gym shoes, white socks (2 pairs if your shoes are new, to avoid blisters), shorts and t-shirts or jerseys. Proper dress, language and behavior are expected at all times. No transportation is provided. Bring your own lunch if attending all day. If you bring your own favorite basketball, please label it. Come with a coachable attitude: this camp is for players serious about developing as basketball players and people.

To Register: Fill out and send in the form on the reverse side with full payment ($10 discount applies for payments received by June 15th). Checks should be made payable to Our Savior New American School.

About Pastor Stelzer: Pastor Stelzer is the boys varsity coach at Our Savior New American School's nationally known team. Before coming to Long Island Pastor Stelzer coached high school basketball in Indiana. In college he played on the 1969-70 Davidson team that went to the Elite 8 before losing by two points to UNC in the finals of the Eastern Regional. His Division 1 team finished #3 in the final AP Poll. He will be sharing things he has learned from many outstanding coaches and players through the years. Pastor Stelzer also serves as Senior Pastor and Headmaster at Our Savior Church and Schools in Centereach. Numerous Our Savior players have received full scholarships, including Juan Palacios (for 2005 Final Four contender, Louisville) and Jamar Wilson (Two Time American East Player of the Year for Conference Champion, Albany).
